MODEL ORHT-SNP-55

Industrial Carts & Dollies / Off-Road Hand Truck

PRODUCT OVERVIEW

The off-road Hand Truck is a great asset when moving material over rough terrain. The strong steel construction with a blue powder coat finish provides durability, while still maintaining its lightweight functionally for a variety of users. The large loading base allows products, both big and small, to be transported from one work area to another. The unique structural design of four wheels directly behind the base, with two additional casters utilized when in motion, provide superb stability throughout use. The extended handle helps the user maintain an ergonomically friendly posture.

KEY FEATURES

- Large wheels roll on a variety of surfaces
- High handle minimizes slouching during use
- Smooth finish diminishes scrapes and abrasions
- Large capacity for lifting large loads
